The cost of this policy

The total premium is the amount we charge you for this policy. It includes the amount we have calculated for the risk, commission and taxes and government charges applicable. The premium will be shown on the Certificate of Insurance.

When calculating the premium we take a number of factors into account. These factors and the degree to which they affect the premium will depend on the information you give us and the level and type of cover you choose.

The main factors that impact your premium include:

- the length of your trip;

- your destination;
- the travel plan chosen;
- additional premium payable for any available options you choose:
 - ◆ cancellation limit option
 - ◆ snow sports cover option
 - ◆ rental vehicle insurance excess
 - ◆ specified items
 - ◆ variable excess
 - ◆ specified medical conditions

For example, premiums may be higher for longer trips, destinations that are high risk or have higher medical costs, plans with greater coverage, and/or when you choose to purchase additional cover.

This policy is only valid when you pay the premium and our representative issues a Certificate of Insurance to you.

Additional options to purchase

We offer the following options for you to purchase. These options can be added with payment of an additional premium, depending on the plan you select, and will be shown on your Certificate of Insurance when you purchase your policy.

Cancellation limit option

For all plans, the policy limit for “Cancellation or holiday deferment costs” must be chosen at the time of purchase; the limit will then appear on the Certificate of Insurance.

You can vary the maximum trip cancellation limit at the time you purchase your policy, and you will be advised of any change in premium. Your policy limit for “Cancellation or holiday deferment costs” and any additional premium will be shown on your Certificate of Insurance.

Snow sports cover option

This option is available with the Australian Travel Plan with payment of an additional premium. When chosen, this option is shown on your Certificate of Insurance. Applicable limits are applied per adult and are not increased for accompanying children.

If you’ll be taking part in snow sports on your trip, you must select the “Snow sports cover option” when you buy your policy to receive cover under your travel plan. In addition, you will receive the following benefits:

Benefit	Applicable limits per adult
Any claim arising from participation in snow sports	Up to the applicable limit of the relevant section.
Ski lift passes	$300
Ski run closure	$100 per day up to a maximum of $500
Hire replacement snow equipment	$300

Refer to the section “Snow sports cover” for further cover details with this option.

Additional rental vehicle insurance excess option

This option is available with the Australian Travel Plan with payment of an additional premium. When chosen, this option is shown on your Certificate of Insurance.

If you are hiring a rental vehicle, you may have to pay an insurance excess for an accident or theft. We have included cover for rental vehicle insurance excess; however, you may wish to increase this cover for an additional amount.

Maximum additional policy limit	Additional units of cover
$5,000	Additional premium charged for each $500 unit of additional limit selected.

This insurance does not provide cover for your liability arising out of your use of a rental vehicle. Please ensure you have adequate liability insurance.

Specified items option

This option is available on the Australian Travel Plan. Specified items are shown on your Certificate of Insurance.

You can cover items worth more than the luggage item limit shown for your plan by specifying the item(s) and paying an additional amount. Items separately insured under this Specified items option are covered up to the amount specified, even if this amount exceeds the total “Luggage and personal effects” limit set out in the Schedule of benefits for your plan.

- Maximum individual specified item limit: $4,000
- Maximum total for all specified items: $10,000

You must insure the total value per item. Please ensure you have proof of value (not more than 12 months old) of any item you specify. This will be required should you make a claim. Depreciation does not apply to specified items in the event of a claim. Cover for specified items is subject to the terms and conditions as detailed under the section “Luggage and personal effects”.

Variable excess option

When you apply for insurance, we will let you know the applicable premium you have to pay. The premium and any excess applicable to your selected plan will be shown on your Certificate of Insurance.

Where a plan allows you to vary the excess, your premium will be adjusted accordingly; the lower the excess you select, the higher your premium will be.

Refer to the section “Excesses” for more information on how excesses work.

Specified medical conditions option

This option is available on the Australian Travel Plan.

If you seek cover for events that arise from or relate to your existing medical condition(s) - other than those listed in “Automatically covered conditions” for which you meet the eligibility criteria - please refer to the section “Existing medical conditions” for the application, medical screening and cover details.

If we agree to offer you cover for your existing medical condition(s), we will advise you in writing of any additional terms and conditions of that cover, including any additional excess and premium that will be payable. If you purchase this cover, it will be shown on your Certificate of Insurance.

Specified medical conditions excess

If you receive cover for any specified medical condition(s) and your Certificate of Insurance shows you have this cover, an additional excess may also apply to each occurrence relating to your specified medical condition(s) when you claim.

This additional excess will also be shown on your Certificate of Insurance and on any other related documents we send you; however, you cannot change or remove this excess.

Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into, vary or extend an insurance contract, you have a duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984.

When we ask you questions that are relevant to our decision to insure you and on what terms, you must tell us anything that you know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances would include in answering the questions.

When amending or extending your contract of insurance, we will ask you specific questions about any change in your circumstances. You must tell us about any change to something you have previously told us, otherwise you will be taken to have told us that there is no change. You have this duty until we agree to insure, amend or extend the contract.

If you do not tell us anything you are required to tell us, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both. If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Cooling-off period

Cancelling within the cooling-off period

You have 21 days from the day you buy your policy to decide if the cover is right for you. If it's not, you can cancel your policy within this 'cooling-off period', and we'll give you a full refund of your premium provided that:

- you haven't started your trip; and
- you haven't made a claim; and
- you don't intend to make a claim or exercise any other right under your policy.

To cancel your policy within the cooling-off period, contact our representative. Your refund will be processed within 15 business days.

Cancelling outside the cooling-off period

If you request to cancel your policy outside the cooling-off period, we may, at our discretion, refund that part of your premium paid for the unused period of insurance; we may charge an administration fee to do so. Also, you cannot have started your trip, made a claim and/or intend to make a claim or exercise any other right under your policy.

Cancellation by us

We can cancel your insurance in any way permitted by law, including if you have:

- failed to comply with your Duty of Disclosure; or
- made a misrepresentation to us before the policy was entered into; or
- failed to comply with a provision of a policy, including failure to pay the premium; or
- made a fraudulent claim under this policy or any other current policy; or
- failed to notify us of a specific act or omission as required by the policy.

If we cancel your policy, we will do so by giving you written notice. We will deduct from the premium an amount to cover the shortened period for which you have been insured by us and refund to you what is left.

The General Insurance Code of Practice

We have adopted the General Insurance Code of Practice developed by the Insurance Council of Australia. The Code is designed to promote good relations and insurance practice between insurers, authorised representatives and consumers. The Code sets out what we must do when dealing with you. Changing your policy Changes to this policy only become effective when we agree to them and send you a new Certificate of Insurance detailing the change.

If you wish to change your personal details or travel dates after your Certificate of Insurance has been issued, please contact us for approval; we may require additional information to review the change request.

Changes to your travel plans

You must tell us as soon as possible if circumstances occur, or if changes or alterations are intended or made, which increase the risk of loss, damage or injury. This may result in changes to your cover.

For example, you intend to visit a destination not listed on your Certificate of Insurance.

If you don't nominate the destination country or region for your trip, any claim under this policy relating to that undisclosed destination country or region may be reduced to nil.

Extending your policy

Depending on your circumstances, if you want to change the dates of your cover, you'll need to either extend your policy or buy a new one (for the additional days). Here's when you can extend your policy:

- if all travellers are currently within the plan age limits – such as if you are travelling with accompanying children who are still under 25;
- if you haven't claimed and don't intend to claim for an event that has already occurred;
- if your health (and any other relevant circumstances that might foreseeably lead to a claim) hasn't changed; and
- if you don't have any specified medical conditions covered under your current policy.

If you don't satisfy all these criteria, don't worry; you can apply to buy a new policy for the additional dates. If you don't qualify for an extension and have to buy a new policy to cover your additional travel days, the PDS and the rates in use at the time you buy your new policy will apply.

You can only extend a policy up to a maximum of 12 months from the original departure date shown on your Certificate of Insurance.

Automatic extension

If the scheduled public transport you're travelling on is delayed, or your trip is delayed by an event that entitles you to make a claim under this policy, the period of insurance will automatically be extended beyond the period of your original trip. This extension lasts until you're capable of travelling to your final destination via the most efficient and direct route, including the journey there, or for a period of 6 months beyond the period of insurance, whichever happens first.

Jurisdiction and Choice of Law

This policy is governed by and construed in accordance with the law of New South Wales, Australia. You agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of New South Wales under this 'Jurisdiction and Choice of Law' clause should a dispute arise under this policy.

Financial Claims Scheme

This policy may be a protected policy under the Federal Government's Financial Claims Scheme (FCS), which is administered by APRA. The FCS may apply in the event that a general insurance company becomes insolvent. If the FCS applies, a person who is entitled to make a claim under this policy may be entitled to a payment under the FCS. Access to the FCS is subject to eligibility criteria. You may obtain further information about the FCS from www.fcs.gov.au and the APRA hotline on 1300 55 88 49.

Our agreement with you

This policy is underwritten by XL Insurance Company SE, Australia branch (ABN 36 083 570 441). XL Insurance Company SE is part of AXA XL, a division of AXA. This policy is an agreement between you and us, made up of:

- your application for insurance; and
- this Combined Financial Services Guide and Product Disclosure Statement; and
- your Certificate of Insurance, which sets out the cover you've chosen and any terms specific to you; and
- any other documentation we issue to you outlining terms and conditions of your cover.

The cover under this policy is provided during the period of insurance, once you've paid us your premium. There are also:

- conditions and exclusions which apply to specific covers or sections;
- "General exclusions", which apply to any claim you make;
- general conditions, which set out your responsibilities under this policy;
- "Claims conditions", which set out our rights and your responsibilities when you make a claim; and
- other terms which set out how this policy operates.

Paying your premium

You must pay your premium (which includes commission, stamp duty and GST if applicable) at the time you take out this policy.

Your premium is set out on your Certificate of Insurance. If you did not pay your premium at the time you took out this policy, then we will treat this policy as never having operated and there'll be no cover.

Excesses

An excess is an amount you must pay once for each claim you make, except for benefit sections which state: "No excess applies to claims under this benefit". The excess is deducted from any claim payment we make to you, if you make more than one claim under your policy, the excess will apply to each claim which arises from each separate set of circumstances.

When you apply for insurance, we will let you know the applicable premium you have to pay, and your excess will be shown on your Certificate of Insurance. Depending on your plan, you may vary your excess. Refer to the section "Variable excess option" under "Additional options to purchase".

How much we'll pay

The most we'll pay for a claim is set out in the Schedule of benefits for the plan you have purchased and for the cover or section you're claiming under, less any excess and depreciation, where applicable. For more information about excesses, refer to the section "Excesses"; for more information on depreciation, refer to the "Luggage and personal effects" section which explains how we calculate depreciation.

When does the policy begin and end?

Your policy will be valid for the period of insurance once you've paid your premium and you've been provided with a Certificate of Insurance. The policy is not a renewable contract of insurance.

When does Cancellation cover begin and end?

Cover under the benefit section "Cancellation or holiday deferment costs" begins from the time your Certificate of Insurance is issued and ends when you return to your home in Australia or when the period of insurance ends, whichever happens first.

When does cover for all other benefits begin and end?

Cover under all other benefits begins when you leave your home in Australia to begin your trip or the departure date of the trip shown on your Certificate of Insurance, whichever happens last. Cover ends when you return to your home in Australia or when the period of insurance ends, whichever happens first.

Waiting period

If at the time you buy your policy (ie, the policy "Issue date") you've already started travelling, a 72-hour waiting period applies before any cover for any events begins. This means there is no cover under this policy for any events that occur within the first 72 hours of buying your policy. Cover only begins after the 72-hour waiting period, and cover is only for events first occurring after the 72-hour waiting period.

In addition, if you select a trip departure date that is more than 72 hours after buying your policy:

- cover under the benefit section "Cancellation or holiday deferment costs" begins after the 72-hour waiting period for any events that first occur after the 72-hour waiting period; and
- cover for all other benefits begins from the trip departure date shown on your Certificate of Insurance for events that first occur after the trip departure date.

If you have an nib travel insurance policy that will expire whilst you are travelling, and you purchase a new policy before your policy expires (at 11.59pm AET) on the return date shown on your Certificate of Insurance, the waiting period will not apply to that new policy, provided that there is no gap between the periods of insurance.

Existing medical conditions

We automatically cover certain existing medical conditions listed under the section "Automatically covered conditions".

If you choose the Australian Travel Plan, you must apply for cover under the "Specified medical conditions option" at time of policy purchase if:

- you have a high risk medical condition, and/or
- you have an existing medical condition you want cover for.

This option is not available with the Cancellation and Additional Expenses Plan.

What's an existing medical condition?

An existing medical condition is one for which, in the 12 months prior to policy purchase, you have:

- had symptoms, or
- been diagnosed, or
- been prescribed medication, or
- received (or are waiting for) medical treatment, or
- received (or are waiting for) tests, investigations or specialist consultation, or
- received or been advised to attend a follow-up consultation; or,
- had surgery or attended a hospital or clinic (as an outpatient or inpatient).

It also includes any chronic or ongoing medical condition or terminal illness.

This definition applies to you, your travelling party, a close relative or a business partner.

Getting cover for existing medical conditions (the "Specified medical conditions option")

A number of the most common medical conditions are automatically covered by your policy. Even if your existing medical condition isn't automatically covered, in many cases you'll still be able to get cover on application. Here's what you need to do:

1. Check if your condition is an automatically covered condition: We'll automatically cover you for over 40 medical conditions. If your existing medical condition is on the list of "Automatically covered conditions", and you satisfy all the criteria related to that condition, you're covered for events that arise from or relate to that condition as part of our standard cover.
2. Apply to add any conditions that aren't automatically covered as "specified medical conditions":

If you have one or more existing medical conditions that aren't automatically covered that you want cover for, you must let us know at the time you buy your policy and complete a medical screening. We'll ask you some questions about your health and then determine whether we can offer you cover and, if so, on what terms.

In many cases, we expect that we'll be able to offer you cover for your existing medical condition(s) for an additional premium. If you choose to pay the additional premium, the condition becomes a specified medical condition covered under your policy, and the premium and any additional excess will be shown on your Certificate of Insurance. You'll then be covered for events that arise from or relate to the specified medical condition(s).

What happens if you choose not to get cover for your existing medical condition?

If you have an existing medical condition that's not automatically covered under your policy or added to your policy as a specified medical condition, then you won't be covered for any claim that arises in relation to that existing medical condition.

High risk medical conditions

If you have ever had any of the following medical conditions, you must have a medical screening before or at the time you buy an Australian Travel Plan policy. We will then determine if the condition can be added to your policy and covered as a specified medical condition.

- heart conditions – cardiovascular/coronary heart disease;
- respiratory conditions (except asthma and/or sleep apnoea providing they are automatically covered);
- chronic kidney disease;
- conditions involving the neck or back;
- cancer which has metastasised (the process by which cancer spreads from the place at which it first arose as a primary tumour to distant locations in the body);
- immune system deficiencies/reduced immunity; or
- any terminal illness.

Changes in your health before travelling

If you develop a new medical condition (or the symptoms of one) after you buy your policy but before you depart on your trip, you must check with your medical practitioner for written confirmation that you're fit to travel. If you don't get your medical practitioner's written confirmation before you travel, and/or are unfit to travel due to your medical condition, you won't be covered for any claim that arises from that condition if you still travel.

Don't forget, if you had symptoms of a condition or were undergoing investigations for it at the time you bought your policy, we consider that to be an existing medical condition. If you forgot to tell us about this when you bought your policy, contact us as soon as possible (contact details on last page of this document).

Pregnancy

If you're pregnant at the time you buy your policy, or fall pregnant afterwards, you'll have cover under the benefits of this policy for any event that arises from your pregnancy, provided that the event that causes your claim:

- is covered by this policy;
- is a pregnancy-related illness; and
- occurs up to the end of the 26th week of a single pregnancy (or the 19th week of a multiple pregnancy).

Further, pregnancy-related illnesses such as hyperemesis (severe morning sickness), gestational diabetes, and any other must either have:

- first developed unexpectedly after you bought your policy and not be related to any previous pregnancy-related illness you had prior to buying your policy; or
- been added to your policy following a medical screening and our written offer to cover under the Australian Travel Plan. (See "Adding cover if you've had a pregnancy-related illness".)

These conditions apply whether you fall pregnant naturally or with medical assistance (for example, through IVF).

Adding cover if you've had a pregnancy-related illness

("Specified medical conditions option" only applicable on the Australian Travel Plan.)

If you have a history of pregnancy-related illnesses, either with a current or a past pregnancy, and would like to apply for cover for them, you must tell us about these conditions before or at the time you buy your policy and complete a medical screening. We'll ask you some questions about your health and then decide whether we can offer cover for your pregnancy-related illnesses and, if so, on what terms.

If we agree to offer you cover, and you pay the additional premium for this cover when you buy your policy, your approved pregnancy-related illnesses become specified medical conditions under your policy. The premium you have paid as well as any additional excess applicable will be shown on your Certificate of Insurance.

For more information on how to add pregnancy-related illnesses, see "Getting cover for existing medical conditions".

When aren't you covered?

You won't be covered for any claims that arise from any past or current pregnancy-related illness if you don't apply for cover for those medical conditions, they aren't approved by us in writing and you don't pay the applicable premium for that cover at the time you buy your policy.

This means that if you don't tell us about current or past pregnancy-related illness(es) at the time you buy your policy – or if you do tell us about them and choose not to pay the additional premium to cover them as specified medical conditions – you won't be covered for any claims that arise as a result of those illnesses.

Also, you should plan your trip so you're home by the end of the 26th week for single pregnancies (or the 19th week for multiple pregnancies). If you don't, and something happens, you won't be covered.

Looking to fall pregnant?

You don't need to currently be pregnant to apply for cover in relation to any pregnancy-related illnesses you've had in the past. If you're thinking about having a baby and you have a history of pregnancy-related illnesses, follow the instructions in this section to apply for cover. If you don't tell us about prior pregnancy-related illnesses and you then fall pregnant, there's no cover under your policy for anything that happens as a result of those illnesses.

Cancellation or holiday deferment costs

You are covered for this benefit under the Australian Travel Plan and the Cancellation and Additional Expenses Plan.

What is covered?

If you have to cancel or rearrange your trip because of one of the reasons listed under "What are the events that will be covered under this section", we will pay either:

1. the non refundable portion of your pre-paid travel arrangements and cancellation fees charged by your travel agent; or

What is the most we will pay?

The most we will pay per policy for this benefit is the "Cancellation - chosen limit" shown on your Certificate of Insurance.

If you paid for any part of your trip using loyalty points, we will choose between either paying for or reinstating lost Frequent Flyer Points or similar reward points.

The amount we will pay is calculated as follows:

- the cost of the equivalent class airline ticket, based on the best available advance purchase airfare for the same season of the following year, less your financial contribution towards the airline ticket;
- multiplied by the total amount of points lost;
- divided by the total amount of points redeemed to obtain the airline ticket.

Example:

Equivalent class advance purchase airfare = $1,000

Points lost = 5,000

Points redeemed to obtain original ticket = 20,000

Claimable amount = $$1,000 \times (5,000/20,000) = \250

Claims

This section describes what you should and should not do, as well as conditions that apply when you make a claim and at the time loss or damage occurs which is likely to give rise to a claim.

What you must do in the event of a claim or incident

3. If there were any witnesses, get their details and a written statement where possible;
4. In the case of an emergency, call our 24 hour Emergency Assistance Team;
5. Contact us to submit your claim as soon as you can;
6. Give us any documents, letters or notices relating to a claim or possible claim, medical certificates, itemised medical accounts, original receipts, rental agreements, repair quotes, ticket and luggage checks or information that we reasonably ask for. This will be at your expense;
7. If you become sick or injured, see a medical practitioner as soon as you are aware of signs or symptoms of the condition and request a written report;
8. If your luggage is lost, delayed or damaged by the carrier, report this to them within 3 days and send to us a copy of the property irregularity report, along with details of any settlement that they make in relation to the loss or damage.

What you must not do in the event of a claim or incident

Claims conditions

These claims conditions apply to every plan.

Claims service standard

Our claims service standard is to settle your claims within 10 working days upon the receipt of a completed Claim Form and all necessary supporting information. If more information is required we will contact you within 10 working days.

GST

If you're a business you must tell us if you're registered, or are required to be registered, for GST. When you do this, we need you to give us:

- Your ABN
- The percentage of any input tax credit you will claim, or will be entitled to claim, on your premium.

When we pay a claim, your GST status will determine the amount we pay you. Your claim settlement amount will be adjusted to allow for any ITC entitlement.

Unless we say otherwise, all amounts in your policy are inclusive of GST. There may be other taxation implications affecting you, depending upon your own circumstances. We recommend you seek professional advice.

How claims administration and legal proceedings are undertaken

When a claim is made we have the right, at our discretion, to exercise all the legal rights of the person making the claim relating to the incident and to do so in their name. We'll take full control of the administration, conduct or settlement of the claim including any recovery or defence we think is necessary.

We'll also report any suspected fraudulent act to the police for further investigation.

Other insurance and contribution

You must notify us of any other insurance which will or may, whether in whole or in part, cover any loss insured under your policy. If at the time of any loss, damage or liability there's any other insurance (whether effected by you or by any other person) which covers the same loss, damage or liability you must provide us with any reasonable assistance we require to make a claim for contribution from any other insurer(s).

Seeking compensation

If your loss has been caused by someone else, for example, your luggage is damaged by a carrier, you are required to make a claim with the responsible party and provide documentation of that claim to us. If they do not pay you the full amount of your claim and your claim is covered under your policy, we will make up the difference. You must claim from them first.

If we have a claim against someone in relation to the money we have to pay under this policy, you must do everything you can to help us recover that money in legal proceedings. If you are aware of any third party that you or we may recover money from, you must inform us of such third party.

Providing proof

You must be able to prove to us you've suffered a loss covered by your policy before we'll pay you for it. We may ask you for this proof if you make a claim under your policy. So your claim can be assessed quickly, make sure you keep the following:

- proof that you owned the item; and

- a copy of the user's manual downloaded from the internet unless you also submit a Statutory Declaration.

If you cannot provide the evidence or proof that we ask for we may not pay you.

We're entitled to obtain and retain any items or materials salvaged or recovered after you make, and we agree, to pay a claim by replacing or paying to replace any items or materials. We may sell the items or materials and keep the proceeds. We may choose to sell the items or materials to you, provided you agree to pay market price.

Subrogation, recovery action and uninsured loss

We may at any time, at our expense and in your name, use all legal means available to you of securing reimbursement for loss or damage arising under your policy. In the event we do so, you agree to give all reasonable assistance for that purpose.

If you've suffered loss that wasn't covered by your policy as a result of the incident, we may offer to attempt to recover this. You may also specifically ask us to recover this for you. You'll need to give us documents supporting nib Travel Insurance Distribution Pty Ltd, ABN 40 129 262 175, AR 336467 (nib Travel Insurance Distribution) is an authorised representative of nib Travel Services (Australia) Pty Ltd ABN 81 115 932 173, AFSL 308461 (nib). nib Travel Insurance Distribution is authorised by nib to distribute and issue travel insurance policies. nib Travel Insurance Distribution may also provide you with general advice about the travel insurance product. nib and nib Travel Insurance Distribution Pty Ltd are wholly owned subsidiaries of nib holdings limited and are part of the nib Group of companies.

nib acts as the underwriting agent of the insurer under a binding authority from the insurer, which means it can issue, vary, renew or cancel your insurance on their behalf and handle and settle any claims you make. nib, nib Travel Insurance Distribution and our business partners act on behalf of the insurer and not on your behalf.

nib authorises various partners who hold their own Australian Financial Services Licences to distribute and issue the travel insurance. Those partners may also provide you with general advice about the travel insurance product. Where a partner provides a financial service in relation to the travel insurance, it does so under its own Australian Financial Services Licence.

About how we are paid nib is paid a commission by the insurer for arranging, issuing and managing the travel insurance (including claims under the insurance) on behalf of the insurer. The commission is calculated as a percentage of the premium (and taxes) you pay for the policy. The percentage varies and is partly based on the profitability to the insurer of all the travel insurance policies arranged by or through nib. Employees of the nib Group of companies who provide services in relation to the insurance receive an annual salary, and may receive bonuses based on performance and/or sales.

nib pays a commission to nib Travel Insurance Distribution when you buy a policy, less any discount provided to you. This may be calculated as a percentage of the premium that you pay for the policy or as a percentage of the commission that nib receives from the insurer. The employees of the nib Group of companies who provide services to nib Travel Insurance Distribution receive an annual salary and may be paid bonuses based on performance and/or sales.

When you buy a policy through a partner, nib pays a commission to that partner, less any discount provided to you. This commission may be calculated as a percentage of the premium that you pay for the policy, the volume of premiums received, or as a percentage of the commission that nib receives from the insurer. nib may also pay a contribution to that partner for marketing and promotions. Please read the Financial Services Guide provided by that partner for more information on the financial services provided and on commissions or remuneration paid.

If you would like more information on commissions or remuneration paid to or by nib, please contact nib or nib Travel Insurance Distribution either before you buy your insurance or within a reasonable time of receiving this Combined FSG and PDS.
